

Jermain Franklin, anchor for
SPORTSCENTRE, TSN

Jermain Franklin is an anchor for TSN Sportscentre, Canada's #1 sports news and information program.

Franklin joined TSN in September 2003 and covered the Calgary Flames and Stampeders, as well as other sports stories from around the Calgary area.

Prior to joining TSN, Franklin spent three years reporting for The FAN 590 in Toronto, covering the Toronto Maple Leafs, Blue Jays, Raptors, and Argonauts.

Some highlights during his 18 years with TSN, include:

- The 2010 Winter Games in Vancouver
- The NBA Finals (nine times; 08', 10'-18')
- The NCAA Final Four / March Madness several times
- NFL playoffs
- Multiple Grey Cup Championships
- The Stanley Cup Finals

Jermain is a proud graduate of the University of Windsor. That is also where he met his wife of 20 years, Andrea. They have two children, Micah and Samson.
