

Sheryl Johnson – VP, Brand & Strategic Communications – Kids Help Phone

Sheryl Johnson proudly brings 25+ years of business acumen, marketing & communications experience and personal passion to her role as Vice President of Brand Strategy & Communications to Kids Help Phone – Canada's only national bilingual 24/7 e-mental health innovation leader in service to 8.2M young people across Canada. Sheryl has helped to build the equity, revenue and profit for a mix of global brands as a senior executive with Fortune 500 companies including, Kraft, Kellogg's, Intuit and Manulife.

With pride and gratitude, she brings the same passion and commitment to serving her community as a voice and instrument of change.